

List Of Observable Trends:

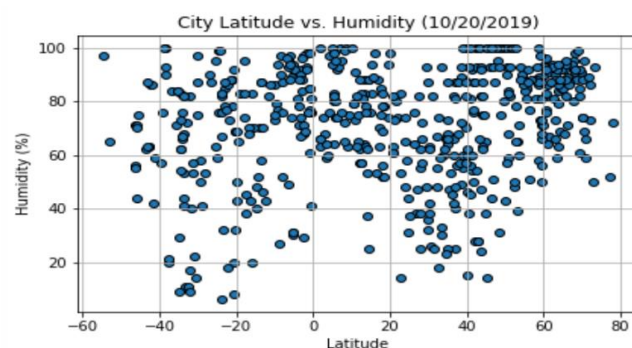

- Wind Speed does not affect according to the distance of the cities from the Equator. it is usually below 20mph in majority of the Cities.

- Temperature Increases for the cities when the latitude of the cities is nearby the equator.

- Humidity for the cities also have no effect according to the Equator. It's Percentage is usually about 60 for most of the cities.

- There is no fixed range where cloudiness lies for the cities. Straight line is observed for most countries having 0 Percent cloudiness and 100 Percent cloudiness.